ETHOS e-theses online service

ETHOS from the British Library allows you to search over 440,000 UK doctoral theses awarded by over 120 institutions, including the Glasgow School of Art. Many are available for instant download, with others available for scan-on-demand after payment.

Searching ETHOS

1. You do not need to login to search or browse ETHOS
2. In your browser, go to <https://ethos.bl.uk/>
3. Enter a name, title or keyword
4. To browse all Glasgow School of Art theses, run an Advanced Search for Current Institution = Glasgow School of Art

Accessing the Full-Text

1. Where you see the  icon in your search results, the thesis may be available to read online via the awarding institution's repository. Simply click the link to view
2. Where you see the  icon in your search results, the thesis is available to read immediately within ETHOS. To access it you will need to register for a free account if you have not already done so. Once logged in, simply click the link to view

Ordering e-Theses

1. Where neither icon is shown in your search results, the thesis is not yet available digitally. You may be able to order a digital copy however, depending on the awarding institution. To order, you will need to register for a free account if you have not already done so
2. Click the 'Order' link within the thesis record and login
3. Click 'Choose Delivery and Download Options'. You will be presented with all available options and their associated costs and turnaround times
4. Click 'Add to Basket' and then confirm your order. You will then be directed to a payment page
